The Debby Reynolds Award Nomination

The Debby Reynolds Award recognizes an educator, counselor or other staff member who actively and resolutely advocates for children in need. Although this person will be the recipient of the actual award, a monetary donation of $700 will go to the school which nominates the winner. Use of the $700 award is at the discretion of the school and the teacher receiving the award. In addition, an award of $500 will be made directly to the winner to be used as he/she chooses.

Nominations must be submitted by April 20, 2012. If you have questions concerning the application, please call Lane Brown in the District Relations Office at 370-8355.

All lines must be filled out completely and the application must be approved by the principal of nominee's school.
