

Leah Louise Tannenbaum Teacher Award for Excellence in Reading Instruction

Tannenbaum Teacher Award Nomination Instructions

History:

The Enrichment Fund for Guilford County Schools is accepting nominations for the Leah Louise B. Tannenbaum Teacher Award for Excellence in Reading Instruction. Nancy Tannenbaum and John Becton established this award in memory of her mother, Leah Tannenbaum. Throughout her life, Mrs. Tannenbaum was committed to promoting excellence in public education and believed reading is the foundation to educational success. In furtherance of the Enrichment Fund's goal to identify and reward excellence in teaching, we will present this award to an outstanding reading instructor in odd-numbered years.

Eligibility:

To be eligible for this award a nominee must be employed as a reading teacher in Guilford County Schools and have worked a minimum of three years for the District. The individual must demonstrate exceptional effort and professional skill in reading instruction and the development of reading competency. We are particularly interested in examples of innovation and contributions to student achievement and contributions to curriculum improvement. The award winner will receive an unrestricted grant in the amount of $2,000, to be paid in two annual installments of $1,000 each. A previous recipient of the award will be ineligible to apply for the award for a period of four years from the time they received the grant.

Submitting Nominations:

Principals, teachers, parents, and the public may submit nominations. No person or group may nominate more than two persons. Self-nominations are also encouraged. The nomination may be completed using the online form or it may be printed out and emailed to awards@enrichmentfund.org or mailed to: Enrichment Fund for the Guilford County Schools, Attn: Tannenbaum Teacher Award, P.O. Box 10208, Greensboro, NC 27404.

Nominations must be received by April 15
